HUMANICA

VOL-I, ISSUE III, September,2022

“You must not lose faith in humanity. Humanity is an ocean; if a few drops of the ocean are dirty, the ocean does not become dirty.”

Mahatma Gandhi

HOD's Message:

I am happy to note that the Department of Humanities is releasing its third issue of the Newsletter enumerating various activities and efforts of our faculty and students.

In the ever-changing environment of economic advancements, it is imperative to prepare technically and socially sound engineers to meet the needs of present society with an attitude of selfless social service. The Department, with its dedicated faculty members, thrives in inspiring the students to be dedicated to human resources.

I extend gratitude to the faculty members of the department, students, and Principal, JIST, for being an inspiration to us.
